Q & A

What are the CID Squads?

A group of dancers that wish to be a little more involved than our Academy dancers but still want time to enjoy many other activities like sports, theater or want a dance experience without a competitive environment.

How was the Squad created?

We have so many students that wanted to participate in our community events and parades, but weren't necessarily interested in our competitive programs. It has become a perfect medium financially and commitment-wise for students who want to "dip their toes in the water" of dance performance, without a large commitment for both dancers and parents.

Who can participate?

Anyone between the ages of 4-10! Our only requirement is NO negativity. Everything we do stems from our "Why," and that is giving back to our community and representing CID as a family-friendly environment. This "squad" is designed to share smiles by performing at retirement communities, community events, and in the studio.

Will they perform at recital?

Yes! Dancers learn two routines throughout the season, and will perform their Spring routine in our annual recital!

Can my child participate in CID Squads & CID Collective?

No, dancers are asked to choose one pathway. If our Collective opportunities are something you are looking for in the future, CID Squads are a WONDERFUL place to start!

What if my dancers misses a practice or performance?

Because we are a team, attendance at rehearsals and performances is important. Participants will be allowed up to 4 absences during the dance season. All performances are required. We give out performance dates well in advance so you can plan ahead.

Is everyone who signs up guaranteed a spot on the squad?

Yes! The beauty of CID Squads is that dancers do not have to audition! ALL invited CID students are welcome to join, as long as the rehearsal class is not considered "full". However, behavior, work ethic and teamwork play a huge role in who is invited back the following season.
